

SEXY INTERNATIONAL PARIS FILM FESTIVAL- EDITION 2010 - PRESS RELEASE - AUSTRALIA

Paris, 2 June 2010

The second Parisian edition of the Sexy International Paris Film Festival (SIPFF) will open its doors to Australia with a retrospective of (Australian) short films.

This selection will be presented at the Grand Action Cinema, Paris on Saturday 26th June 2010 as well as a presentation of a "Best Of" short film programme from the Australian Sexy Film Festival blasting off at the Yono Bar, Paris on Friday 25th June at 7pm.

Australian "Sexy" in Paris

The Australian retrospective features a Kaleidoscopic array of award winning short films centered around the theme "Sexy": voyeuristic encounters at a peepshow, the physical manifestations of sex addiction, the fragility of marriage surrounded by guilt and jealousy, the world of bondage and discipline, and the touching story of bringing a girl home for the first time. Films from award winning filmmakers include Dustin Feneley's (Cannes 2008, Snow) touching short film 'Eskimo Kiss', as well as the Tropfest finalist short film "Kissed" by Gav Barbey.

The Retrospective will take place in the Henri Langlois room of The Grand Action Cinema on Saturday 26th June at 3pm. The Australian Retrospective will be presented for the first time in Paris as part of the Sexy International Paris Film Festival 2010 (SIPFF).

The screening of the "Best of SIFF (Australia) 2009" programme will take place on Yono Bar on Friday 25th June. The audience will discover a selection of films including the Raindance selected short La Tangente (France) as well as an array of cutting edge/sexy films which screened at the Sexy International Film Festival Australia.

International Glamour !

The SEXY INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL (SIPFF) showcases exceptional short and feature films from across the world which explore love, sexuality, sensuality and relationships - without the X . The festival, which began in Melbourne, Australia will tour 2010 : New-York, Los Angeles as well as a "best of" screening in Paris! The SIPFF will award the Best Francophone short and Best International Short film prize by a jury made up of well respected artists in the film industry.
